

Saturday, May 9, 2015: 6pm “Images of Hometown Teams in the Pratt Region” Opening Reception and Panel Discussion

Please Join Us at The Filley Art Museum, 421 S Jackson St.

Free and Open to the Public

Photography exhibition collaboration between the Pratt County Historical Society and the Vernon Filley Art Museum. This exhibit will be featuring historic sports team photographs, curated by Charmaine Swanepoel; and present day student photography, from a Sports Photography class taught by Stan Reimer through the Filley Art Museum.

(Photograph on Left)
Pratt Youth Soccer Team,
 Summer 2014
 Taken by Lexi Maloney

(Photograph on Right)
Pratt American Legion Baseball Team
 1940's

Front row - L to R: Bob Christopher, Sam Rich,
 Bill Keller, Marion Rouse, Graden Bowman,
 Harold Dietz, Beny Frantz, D. Giannangelo-Coach
 Back Row-Lto R: Mr. Willard, Bob Cantwell, Frank
 Bigwood, Ira Frantz-Coach, Speck Ferrell, Mr. Reed,
 Clayton Reed, Jim Ferrell

STAY TUNED FOR OTHER “HOMETOWN TEAMS” EVENTS IN THE PRATT AREA from May 9th to June 21st

- Saturday, May 9, 6pm; Exhibit Opening & Panel Discussion: Panelists: Thad Henry, Bruce Pinkall, Greg Wade, Carter Barker, Stan Reimer, Joe Reynolds and potentially some of the art/sports photography students featured in the exhibition.
- YouTube video production project by Skyline High School Senior student Layton Kenworthy showcasing the “Images of Hometown Teams in the Pratt Region” exhibition.
- Monday, May 19, 7pm “Our Boys” by Joe Drape, book discussion at the Pratt Public Library, 401 S Jackson St. Pratt, KS 6714. Led by Kansas Humanities Council speaker: Kim Stanley
- Be sure to visit the Smithsonian Home Town teams host site exhibition in Greensburg, at the Kiowa County Historical Museum from May 9th to June 21st as well!

This exhibition was made possible in part by a grant from the South Central Community Foundation in Pratt, and the Kansas Humanities Council.

